"Section 1. That the Wyoming legislature invites the indigenous Nations, the homesteaders and ranchers of the northern Great Plains and the military to participate in the April through November celebrations of the one hundred fiftieth (150th) anniversary of the 1868 Treaty of Fort Laramie. The Wyoming legislature recognizes the significant contribution of this historic event to frontier history and to the success of Wyoming, the indigenous Nations, the homesteaders and ranchers and the military. The Wyoming legislature congratulates the indigenous Nations on their forward-looking, positive relationships with the United States government, with each of the several states, with Wyoming and with our local communities.". WASSERBURGER
