

[TO SUBSTITUTE BILL No. 1]

Page 9-after line 14      Insert and renumber:

"(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any adult who may lawfully possess a firearm may have that firearm in a private motor vehicle on any road, street, driveway or parking area within the grounds of any public facility in which firearms are prohibited provided the firearms are in a portion of the motor vehicle that may be locked and are concealed or in a closed container from which the firearm must be removed in order to be used. For the purposes of this subsection, a closed gun bag is a closed container. The governor may prohibit the application of this section in special circumstances where the presence of a firearm in a private vehicle poses a significant threat to safety and security."
