"[LIMITATIONS ON STATE CONTRACTS]

Section 332. For any funds appropriated in this act to any agency's budget for contractual services, consulting services and special project services (series 900), not less than ninety-eight percent (98%) shall be made by sealed competitive bid. If the general services division determines in any fiscal biennium that more than two percent (2%) of an agency's budget for contractual services, consulting services and special projects and services was contracted without competitive bid, the general services division shall notify the budget division which shall conduct an investigation into the agency with the department of audit as provided in W.S. 9-2-1004(a)(iii).".
