Enrolled Act No.: HEA No. 0105

Chapter No.: [Chapter Number_RO]

Prime Sponsor: Joint Corporations, Elections & Political Subdivisions Interim Committee

Catch Title: Business entities-communications contact.

Subject: Business entities designated communications contact.

Summary/Major Elements:

- Existing law requires every entity to keep current certain information on a person authorized to receive communications from the entity's registered agent and deemed the designated communications contact for the entity.
- This act clarifies the information shall be the name, mailing address and physical address, if different, and business telephone number of the person.
- The act specifies the person authorized to be the designated communications contact for the entity shall be an officer, director, limited liability company member or manager, managing partner or trustee of the entity and shall not be the entity's registered agent or an employee of the entity's registered agent unless the registered agent is the entity's officer, director, limited liability company member or manager, managing partner or trustee.
