Catch Title: Background checks-access to federal tax information.

Subject: Background checks for employees with access to federal tax information.

Summary/Major Elements:

- This bill requires fingerprinting for state employees, job applicants, contractors and subcontractors if the person has or will have access to federal tax information and where the head of the employing agency, institution or political subdivision determines that federal law governing access to federal tax information requires a criminal history record check of the employee, applicant, contractor or subcontractor.
