Enrolled Act No.: SEA No. 0040

Chapter No.: [Chapter Number_RO]

Prime Sponsor: Joint Corporations, Elections & Political Subdivisions Interim Committee

Catch Title: Special districts elections.

Subject: Revisions to procedures regulating special districts elections.

Summary/Major Elements:

- This bill revises election requirements for certain special districts, including:
 - Amends the Special Districts Elections Act of 1994 to specify that its provisions apply to county commissioner fire protection districts;
 - Amends the formation statutes for hospital districts to specify that hospital districts may be formed according to the provisions of the Special Districts Elections Act of 1994;
 - Amends notification requirements for a board of county commissioners voting on a resolution to create a new fire protection district; and
 - Allows new fire protection districts to be initially formed with either three or five directors, depending on the size of the district. It also provides for staggered elections of directors and allows the district board to determine how directors will be apportioned and elected in the district.
