

FISCAL NOTE

No significant fiscal or personnel impact.

The Public Service Commission assumes a historically consistent quantity of extra-territorial capital projects that would become subject to Public Service Commission review under this legislation. Such a quantity of applications could be processed with existing resources and without material fiscal impact.