Catch Title: Hathaway need-based scholarships-graduate school.

Subject: Hathaway need-based scholarships for graduate students.

Summary/Major Elements:

- Under current law, Hathaway Scholarship recipients, under certain circumstances, may use their merit based Hathaway Scholarship for graduate school. The merit based scholarships provide a statutorily established award to students each semester. Graduate students who can use their merit based Hathaway Scholarship may also qualify for the need based Hathaway Scholarship, which provides additional funding for the recipient.
- For Hathaway Honor Scholarship recipients, the need based award is calculated as the student's unmet financial need exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000.00). The bill creates a maximum limit for need based awards for graduate school students. The new limit is the undergraduate cost of attendance at the University of Wyoming minus two thousand dollars ($2,000.00).
