

FISCAL NOTE

The fiscal impact is indeterminable.

The bill requires students participating in Western Regional Higher Education Compact veterinary medicine programs to actively engage in full-time professional practice in Wyoming for not less than three years or repay all amounts expended by the state on the student's education together with interest which shall begin accruing after the student's graduation or withdrawal from the professional school. It is unknown what impact this change in the program will have on utilization.