Summary/Major Elements:

- This bill prohibits the state of Wyoming from enforcing any federal statute, rule, executive order, judicial order or judicial finding that prohibits a person from owning, possessing or transferring a firearm, ammunition or related accessories or orders from ordering the seizure of those items. The bill provides exceptions from this seizure prohibition for people who are convicted felons, subject to a protective order, on probation, parole or bond, adjudicated legally incompetent, committed to a mental institution, unlawfully in the state, dishonorably discharges, fugitives from justice, or subject to an order for violating hunting laws.
- This bill provides for civil actions and removes governmental immunity for violations of the act.
