"(d) The Wyoming stable token liquidity account is created. The commission shall maintain in the liquidity account an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the notional value of all outstanding issued Wyoming stable tokens as a reserve amount. Funds in the liquidity account are continuously appropriated to the commission for the purpose of maintaining a reserve amount as required by this subsection and for transferring funds to the Wyoming stable token trust account to mitigate losses incurred in the liquidation of assets held in the trust account and to support the redemption of Wyoming stable tokens as provided by this act. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit the commission from transferring funds from the liquidity account to the Wyoming stable token trust account for redemption support. For purposes of this act, funds in the Wyoming stable token liquidity account shall not be treated as part of the Wyoming stable token trust account.

(e) The commission may, subject to rules promulgated by the commission, accept federal grants and other contributions, grants, gifts, transfers, bequests and donations from any source for deposit into any account created in this section, provided that funds deposited into an account under this section shall be subject to the requirements of that account."
