9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

10

11 Section 1.

12

1 (a) The legislature finds that:

2

3 (i) In State v. Johnson, 2026 WY 1, the Wyoming
4 supreme court interpreted article 1, section 38 of the
5 Wyoming constitution to include a right to make health care
6 decisions but acknowledged the legislature's authority
7 under article 1, section 38(c) of the Wyoming constitution
8 to enact reasonable and necessary restrictions to protect 9 the general welfare of the people;

10

11 (ii) The general welfare of the state of Wyoming
12 and its people necessarily includes the promotion of humane
13 standards of conduct and the prevention of the infliction
14 of excruciating pain on sentient beings within the 15 jurisdiction of the state;

16

17 (iii) Substantial medical evidence shows that an 18 unborn child is capable of experiencing pain by not later
19 than the unborn child reaching a gestational age of fifteen
20 (15) weeks, as evidenced by the presence of sensory
21 receptors, spinal reflex pathways and hormonal stress
22 responses to invasive procedures;

23

1 (i) "Detectable fetal heartbeat" means cardiac
2 activity or the steady and repetitive rhythmic contraction
3 of the fetal heart within the gestational sac that is
4 detectable using standard medical equipment;

5
6 (ii) "Medical emergency" means a condition that,
7 in reasonable medical judgment, so complicates the medical 8 condition of the pregnant woman as to necessitate the 9 immediate termination of her pregnancy to avert the woman's 10 death or for which a delay will create a serious risk of 11 substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily
12 function of the woman;

13
14 (iii) "Termination of pregnancy" means the use
15 of any instrument, medicine, drug or other substance or 16 device with the intent to terminate the pregnancy of a
17 woman known to be pregnant, with an intention other than to 18 increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the 19 life or health of the child after live birth or to remove a
20 dead unborn child.

21
22 35-6-402. Determination of detectable fetal heartbeat
23 required.

1

2 (a) Except in the case of a medical emergency, no
3 person shall perform, induce, attempt to perform or attempt
4 to induce a termination of a pregnancy unless the person
5 has first made a determination of whether the unborn child
6 has a detectable fetal heartbeat.

7

8 (b) The determination of whether an unborn child has
9 a detectable fetal heartbeat shall be made using standard
10 medical practices and techniques, including ultrasound
11 measurement if necessary.

12

13 35-6-403. Prohibition of terminations of unborn
14 children with detectable fetal heartbeats.

15

16 (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this
17 section, no person shall perform, induce, attempt to 18 perform or attempt to induce a termination of pregnancy if:

19

20 (i) The unborn child has a detectable fetal
21 heartbeat; or

22

1 (ii) The person fails or has failed to make the
2 determination of whether the unborn child has a detectable
3 fetal heartbeat under W.S. 35-6-402.

4
5 (b) The restriction in subsection (a) of this section
6 shall not apply if, in reasonable medical judgment, a
7 medical emergency exists. If a medical emergency exists, a
8 licensed physician may terminate the pregnancy, provided
9 that the termination of the pregnancy shall be in the 10 manner that provides the best opportunity for the unborn
11 child to survive, unless that manner would pose a greater
12 risk of death or substantial and irreversible physical
13 impairment to the pregnant woman.

14
15 35-6-404. Penalties; sanctions.

16
17 (a) Any person who intentionally or knowingly
18 violates this article shall be guilty of a felony
19 punishable by imprisonment for not more than five (5)
20 years, a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars
21 ($10,000.00), or both.

22

1 (b) A violation of this article constitutes
2 unprofessional conduct and shall result in the mandatory
3 revocation of the person's professional license by the 4 appropriate licensing board in this state.

5

7 subsection (c), 33-24-122 by creating a new subsection (d),
